WASHINGTON, D. C., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1940.

Colonials Polish Defense Against Spread Play for Big Battle With Hoyas

Win, Lose or Draw G. W. Is Hopeful By FRANCIS E. STAN.

Man With Entertaining Ideas

wi it is only fitting a bowl should be brought to Georgetown, Carter

Mr. Barron is the Mr. Big of the local Variety Club. It was the d Georgia Tech halfback who promoted the Henry Armstrong fight October and he thinks that December is as good as any other onth to come back and promote again for the sake of sweet charity

His latest idea is to bring Fordham to Washington to play in the Capital Bowl game. Mr. Barron has an idea this would draw a lot attention, although neither Fordham nor Georgetown is unbeaten. used to play with Jim Crowley," he says. "He was a good halfback I was just a halfback but, anyway, we played together and I think can get him to bring the Rams to Washington. Now I've got to work

Whether Georgetown can be worked on is conjectural. The Hoyas, te the Rams, still have a chance to get a bowl bid. The best they on hope for is the Orange Bowl but, nowadays, the Miami people aren't ving off with tin and this stands as a lucrative invitation

ordham Had Rose Bowl Illusions

One thing about a Georgetown-Fordham game is that, after four one went for a substantial gain. The rs, the Hilltoppers' greatest team in history will be opposed to a other was hauled down with a venge--class opponent. This is not meant to belittle the George Wash- ful thump by Scott Gudmundson. gions, who will play the Hoyas on Saturday. Down around H street e Colonials are breathing defiance. They have an idea they can the Georgetowns. But, assuming the Hoyas win and by a score which they are accustomed, they will have remained untested locally. As we have written in the past, Georgetown's power is almost a Reinhart admitted. "But I figure As freshmen, Jack Hagerty's great team went the Georgetown is a bit stronger than of all freshman teams. Nobody paid much attention. As sophomores, the Hoyas were hot stuff but they didn't play any more trouble. We aren't going to be their own backyard. As juniors the difficulty was the surprised or mystified by anything me and, so far, as seniors, they have not been tested to the utmost evived after the Rams butted over West Virginia, find a way to upset those blockers-But along came the far-traveling, bizarre St. that's the key to stopping the cam to lick the Fordhams, 9-6, and the Rams spread."

But Fordham threw in no sponge. Crowley whipped up his men Frank August and Johnny Picco. i they turned back North Carolina, which upset Duke, and last week ends and the only linemen definitely romoter Barron Would Choose Columbia Next at are hard to whip. Fordham's only loss was by two ams have Arkansas and a weak N. Y. U. team to face. only defeat this season-indeed, the Hoyas' only loss in ring 24 games—was at the hands of Boston College's G. W.'s line, but off yesterday's workurke last week. 19-18. The Hoyas did not have out it is a safe wager they won't go defeat, and their only remaining game is with around it.

week, though, is throwing punches to the end. He thinks that people here will be enough receipts to go around, with the Hoyas getting a t share. Fordham claiming an equally obese dividend, and the Variety lub making ends meet, plus a bit. And he may be right.

roubles are over. In short, if the Hoyas are willing and Fordham isn't, before the boys buckled on their e has some more tricks up his sleeve. Columbia, for instance, suggests serimmage armor, sending well

"That's not a bad team." he explains, "and, besides, there is the Louittle angle. Lou was the big coach around here until Hagerty came. to be settled until tomorrow. might be a spectacle, having Little and his former pupil on the

Anyway, Carter Can Conjure Rare Spectacles

the beginning, but a surprising Syracuse team won a 3-0 Daniels replacing Al Blozis at tackle. Wondrack, former Maryland play ist when people were counting the Lions out, Columbia whipped Wis-

If, perchance, Columbia isn't interested either, Promoter Barron has ave to embrace seniors only but, this year, this would be no handicap will start Wixted and give the kick- and a well-balanced backfield that all. There isn't a junior or sophomore in town who could break into

Georgetown is graduating 19 members of its crack team, which inludes every member of the No. 1 team (assuming that Daniels is the ght tackle instead of Al Blozis). In other words, Georgetown's backfield of McFadden, Koshlan, Castiglia and Ghecas would be ready, with Marynd's Joe Murphy, George Washington's Sam Babich, Ken Batson,

In the line, Georgetown eligibles would be Kopcik and Lascari, ends; ullilove and Daniels, tackles; Ostinato and All-America Lio, guards, and ooth centers, Allen Matuza and Jim Reichey, it a better outfit on the field for an all-star game and Mr. Barron ealizes this as much as anybody else. But what he wants, first, is a Georgetown-Fordham game, to be called the Capital Bowl. Next, Georgeown-Columbia. And, after that, a Georgetown-G. W.-Maryland-Catholic Iniversity all-star team against the Redskins. Nobody can hang the

Wary Duke, Carolina

Clemson, Furman Drill

Conference pair off in traditional Facing week-end tilts with firsthand experience in the school of 3 by Carolina last week, renewed its defense routine practice for the game with N. C. State, while the Tar Heels, prepared for their invasion of Charlottesville with the Carolina, too, looked to its de-

Clemson, shying from the possibility of last-minute injuries befenses.

Sparingly; Virginia

Teams Busy Today

Trim Defenses for

Week-End Frays

Rutgers Is Favored, But Maryland Sees Victory Chance

Terps, Battling Heavier Foe, in Fighting Mood In Baltimore Game

BALTIMORE. Nov. 21.-Mary- RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 21.-Four and's Terrapins collided with a Virginia members of the Southern powerful and much huskier Rutgers even today at 2 o'clock in the Municipal Stadium in the Thanks- Thanksgiving Day football battles giving Day football feature for this today while most of the other loop teams are standing by their guns While Maryland has lost six out of its seven games while the favored until Saturday. carlet has won five out of seven. The clash at City Stadium here osing only to Princeton and un- between Richmond and William and Mary involves the Virginia

All of the big guns of the Terapin eleven were primed and championship. loaded for bear" and, despite that The only other conference school Rutgers is much heavier and its with business on hand for today is record makes the Maryland chances Maryland, which entertains Rutappear slim, the determined Terps counted themselves as having about gers in Baltimore. an even chance. At least they were

Bombers Meet Panthers

Brown Bombers of Washington fore the conference tilt with Furand Manassas Panthers of Manas- man at Greenville, drilled sparingsas. Va., meet at 8:15 tomorrow in ly, as did the Furman squad. a night football game at Ballston Davidson meets the Citadel in a College gridders were so pleased Stadium.

Of Holding G. U. To Low Score Downtown Ends Shine

In Drill; Hilltops' Daniels to Kick

By LEWIS F. ATCHISON.

George Washington will be all right Saturday against Georgetown's spread plays if the Hoyas are no better than were the Colonial secondstringers yesterday in a lengthy workout on the polo field.

Only twice during the better part of an hour did a scrub back get besurprise package unwrapped in the Kansas game last week, who may be bad news for the Hilltoppers.

'We looked all right against out reserves on the spread," Coach Bill our second team and will give us they try, but we'll have trouble with their blockers. They're big and good and if they hit right, you go out of there in a hurry. We are trying to

Colonial Ends Sturdy.

slated to start Saturday, were out-standing during the defensive drill. Time and again they piled up interinto the arms of waiting secondar the sidelines and forced him out of bounds. The Hoyas may go through

The downtown school held George-The downtown school held George-town to a net gain of 67 yards rushing last season when it lost a heartbreaking 7-0 decision and, although the odds are terrifically high against it, G. W. hopes to duplicate the feat.

Gudmundson, who is certain to see much action, stole the show from Kenny Batson in a punting drill placed kicks 45 and 50 yards. Whether he or Batson will get the Wondrack of Tech High's football nod Saturday is a moot question not Hovas Stress Kicking. Kicking also occupied much of his line-up to bring as many seniors championship. Tech into the starting eleven as possible the East Division and Western the and one of the changes will find Joe West, with Tech a slight favorite.

ing assignment to Daniels, who stormed most of the gridiron heights made good on his first appearance it has attempted. in the role against Waynesburg wo ugly ones against Waynesburg, he likes. but when they marked off the distance one traveled 45 yards and recognized as one of the outstanding back by parcel post G. U. Has Ailing List. Mark Ostinato, regular bad ankle, the Hoyas were further hit by injuries today when it was shares a tackle berth with Earl Fullilove, may not be able to play because of an ailing leg, and Joe Mickey, a guard, will be missing because of a damaged ankle. Thanksgiving was observed with all the trimmings by both squads this morning and knocked off at 11:30 for a feast, while George Washington reported one hour later and drilled until 1 p.m., after which they descended en masse on the

Tossers Want Practice

Heurich League are seeking a prac- mer.

"HOME ON THE RANGE"-Mary Warner (left), takes a peek through a telescope as Helen Pattie fires at a target at the opening of the just formed Women's Rifle Shooting League.

Army-Navy Tickets 12 Teams of Women Still Available

WEST POINT, N. Y., Nov. 21 .-Many loyal graduates of both Annapolis and West Point whose boast for years has been that they never missed an Army-Navy game are today wearing long faces. Scattered in farflung Army posts or with the fleet on the high seas the national defense expansion is forcing them to take the game vicariously.

There's a silver lining to every cloud, however, and Mr. and Mrs. John Q Public benefit by it. A small quantity of the tickets normally absorbed by members of both Army and Navy athletic associations thus have been released for public sale for the game in Philadelphia Novem-

According to Lt. Col. Louis E. Hibbs, graduate manager of athletics here, last minute requests still may be honored by either athletic association, provided they are accompanied by certified check or money order covering the $4.40 charge, plus 20 cents registration fee.

Thousands Turn Out To See Christman dition has pulled crowds to the foe of Tech. The victories were over Kansas-Missouri football games for If today's game ends in a tie, Tech Tigers' laughing boy ing temperatures and murky skies abreast of your gridironology, is organized as the season goes on. the young man who has gained ap-Georgetown was out at 10 o'clock Corriden and Uhle Let proximately two and a quarter miles Semipro Nines Planning of ground while in control of a football for a trio of Missouri teams on CHICAGO, Nov. 21 (A).-The 26 different fall afternoons.

He will go down in Big Six history Coaches Johnny Corriden and George for the 413 passes he has thrown up Pan-American semipro Uhle have been released uncondi- to today, for the 189 that reached tournament may be held next tionally. Corriden had been with their mark and for the 3.822 yards September among championship the Cubs 11 seasons. Uhle was he gained by both running and contenders representing Latin Amer-tice game for tomorrow night with Reports circulated that Charley as the young man who came to col- dent of the National Semipro Basea team with a gym. Call Manager Root, veteran Cub pitcher, might be lege with the somewhat original ball Congress, said today. Robert Wheaton at Randolph 5026 asked to join Charles "Dick" Spald- idea that football could be played for fun as well as keeps.

Open Rifle League; Markettes Star

competing under the auspices of the National Rifle Association at the gallery at Tenth and G streets N.E.-Star Staff Photo.

Turn in Outstanding Score of Inaugural

It's open season for the modern Annie Oakleys of the District, with 12 women's rifle teams starting off the gallery season last night at the National Rifle Association range. 10 G street N.E. This is the first league of exclusively feminine sharpshooters to be organized for regular match schedules and by far the largest number of dead-eye Dorothys ever to grace a rifle range here.

The National Capital Club's Marleague standings.

Pan-American Series

By the Associated Press. WICHITA, Kans., Nov. 21 .- A ican countries, the United States and But he also will be remembered possibly Canada, Ray Dumont, presi-

Referee's Reversal

LURAY, Va., Nov. 21.-Luray

High School's football team, never defeated by Shenandoah in the long rivalry between the schools, left the field on the long end of a 20-to-18 score, but lost the game via the referee's

The delayed decision hinged contested game. Shenandoah.

trailing, 18 to 20, attempted a field goal. The try was blocked.

but a Shenandoah man recovered the ball and ran it across the

At first the official decision was that the ball was dead. Then the touchdown was allowed.

Wagner's First Club

Will Hold Dinner

nell papers please copy.)

Luray goal line.

Ends Grid Record

Providence Tilt End for Dozen C. U. Gridmen

Sachon, Ace of Team, In Lot to Play Last Time Saturday

Pity Catholic University's coaching

Graduation stripped the roster of a bevy of stars this year, including Rocco and Carmen Pirro, fullback and place-kicker, respectively, par excellence. Only one man was left in the line and hardly enough talent to scare up a starting backfield. But Messrs. Bergman, Cotton and Millner got busy and turned out a good eleven despite this tremendous loss of personnel.

Now the gentlemen face the gloom! prospect of doing it all over again next season because Saturday's game with Providence at Brookland will mark the end of their collegiate football careers for 12 Cardinals. One of the group is Pete Sachon, the team's sparkplug and All-America candidate.

Others slated to go in the backfield are Capt. Hank Brostek, Charley Moutenot and Hank Sant Ambrogio Linemen are Joe Carrig, currently on the sick list; Gerry Strang, Leo Kane Julius Stanges, Jim Conlen, George Du Bois, Jack Reidy and Moe Schul-

Huck Hughes replaced Sachon in yesterday's workout as Pete remained on the sideline with a game leg and probably will see much action in the fadeout. Hughes opened the drive that netted three thirdperiod touchdowns against Hardin-Simmons last week

Western Scrap Caps Big Year for Tech's

In First Season at Helm, Mentor Guides Team To Title Playoff

Win, lose or draw. Coach Artie team has achieved a success that comes to few schoolboy gridiron coaches in the first year. Tech and Western were to meet Jack Hagerty's attention at George- this afternoon at Central Stadium town. The Hoya mentor is juggling for the District public high school

The coach is debating whether to er and line coach at Tech, did not start Bill Wixted, another senior, at take over head coaching duties last end in place of Mike Kopcik, a jun- year until after the practice season ior, but hesitates because of Mike's was well under way and so is in excellent punting which has saved command for his first full campaign. Already the team has enjoyed un-As the matter now stands Hagerty usual success, displaying a good line

Seven games were on the regular Daniels kicks a longer, higher ball schedule. Techs won five, lost one than Kopcik when not rushed, but and tied one. An outstanding s inclined to be erratic if hurried. achievement for a first-year coach. Even his poorer efforts go 40 or 50 It usually takes several seasons for a yards, but they don't zoom skyward mentor to get his system operating with picture-book finesse. He booted and to gather the types of players Play Last Game

The only defeat was by Gonzago, the other 55. If he hits a good one elevens in this area. The tie was a against G. W. they'll have to ship it scoreless affair with Central, ancient foe in today's championship battle. In the seven games, Tech scored 95 points to 32.

> and Western will be declared joint champions. There have been joint champions in the past and on one occasion the series ended in a triple deadlock among Tech, Central and

Out by Cub Coaches

Petworth A. C. basketers of the brought in from Buffalo last sum- passing.

ing on the new coaching staff.

Capture Three Matches,

Seven of the teams are made up of members from the District's Women's Rifle Corps, organized in midsummer, with teams from the National Rifle Association offices, the Maritime Commission, the Government Printing Office, the Soil Conservation and the National Capital Rifle Club making up the even dozen. Such team titles as Rangerettes, Hits 'n' Misses. Shooting Stars. Pow-der Puffs were adopted last night as In His Honor kettes and N. R. A.'s Hits 'n' Missses finished the first night with three matches each to their credit, the Markettes' scores of 341-391-395 of memorate the launching of one of a possible 400 for each match, by far the outstanding marks chalked up. Teams are of four members. with 10 shots each per match and a set of three matches per team fired each night. The setup is much York (Pa.) High, Episcopal, Ana- 48 years. Today the expected 20,000 like that of the bowling leagues, costria, Eastern and Western, Tech's spectators at their 49th meeting will with teams paired for the evening and total matches won determining

Three other leagues, the Washington Rifle League, the District Rifle Even the forecasts of near-freez- League and the District Pistol vided by the N. R. A. for local shoot-Christman, just in case you aren't ing interests. Other leagues will be

The tournament would be held in full team. STEUBENVILLE, Ohio, Nov. 21 .-

A testimonial dinner will be held here next Tuesday night to combaseball's most noted careers-that of Brawny Honus Wagner, renowned shortstop who now coaches the Pittsburgh Pirates.

It was 45 years ago that the "Flying Dutchman" signed a contract to play for the Steubenville club of the Interstate League at $35 a month and there was a stipulation he had to pay for his uniform and shoes out of that modest sum.

Wagner recalls that he rode the caboose of a coal train from his home in Carnegie, Pa., to report to the club for the first time.

Interclass Struggle Brings Grid Sport Back to Blues

Revenue Will Be Used To Restore Football To Varsity Program campus Saturday after an absence of three years when upper and lower classmen tangle in their annual pigskin duel. The kickoff is scheduled for 2 o'clock.

Blair Smith, former University of Maryland star and now director of athletics, is handling arrangements for the game and helping coach both teams. The upper class eleven has adopted the cognomen of "De-" while their opponents will be known as the "Blitzkriegers."

Proceeds derived from the game will be contributed to a fund being collected to help re-establish football as a major sport at Kendall Green. It was abolished when the supply of material dwindled away to such an extent the Blue was unable to muster much more than a

In the last two years a surprisingly large number of eligibles have arrived on the campus, however, and the students deem the time ripe for bringing back football

Gallaudet Alumni particularly are urged to attend and make it an informal "home-coming" game.

Fights Last Night

MEMPHIS, Tenn.-Pat Comiskey. 205, Paterson, N. J., stopped Max Minnich, 190, New York (3); Bob Sikes, 190. Pine Bluff, Ark., outpointed Neville (Tiger) Beech, 185, Picayune, Miss. (10).

Texas Aggies Yet to Reveal Full Gridiron Strength

Cornell De-emphasis Rumored, Snavely Shops, Say Gossips; Lahar Highly Touted Gridder

By EDDIE BRIETZ, Associated Press Sports Writer.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 21.-The gossips say Carl Snavely is shopping. Which may or may not be in line with that rumored Cornell de-emphasizing program. Five clubs are bidding for Eddie Miller, star shortstop of the Boston Bees. Here's a tip: When Minnesota plays Wisconsin Saturday, the spot will be ripe for an upset if there ever was one. Those who ought to know say the Texas Aggies haven't been unwrapped this season. The smart guys out here don't figure Kentucky will beat Tennessee Saturday, but they do think it will be a dogfight, like North Carolina and Duke, for Monday a.m. quarterbacks: Looks as if the boys around the drug store finally won a game on Monday-the one Cornell gave back to the Indians.

Cocktail hour-The Canisius season's finale at Wilmington. | with their victory over Long | to play in the Blue-Gray game at | 1102 New York Ave. N.W. RE. 1200

Island U. they bought a pipe for Tuppy Kossack, former Cornell tackle, who scouted Long Island. Best line of the week was banged out by the fellow who called Clark Shaughnessy a "refugee from a string of Chicago goose-eggs." Gus Dorais, Detroit U. coach, has joined the select circle of coaches who have won 100 football games for their schools. (You can count these guys on your fingers). Well, boys and girls, the first of the bowl games takes place today. Down at New Orleans a couple of kid teams will tee off in the "Turkey Bowl" game, Benny Leonard, the ex-lightweight king, is getting ready to take another fling at the restaurant business in

Heart throbs-Robert Taylor plays tackle and Dick Powell is in the backfield for the Michigan City (Ind.) Highs. From near and far-Eight of Montgomery, Ala., are captains of their teams. Ever since Jimmy Foxx announced he would do no more catching, the Red Sox have been after Frank Haves of the Athletics, but Connie Mack won't talk business. Papers out here say the Ohio State folks should be pardoned if they indulge in a small smile over the unpleasantness in which Cornell finds itself. The "Swedish angel" was such a flop that Louisville fans pitched seat cushions at him. Tom Stidham, Oklahoma U.'s smart coach, says Harold Lahar, 214pound guard and ace downfield blocker, is the best pro football prospect he ever coached.

KEEP ROLLIN' WITH Auto Loans

Today's guest star - Nixson Denton, Cincinnati Times-Star: "The new Judge Landis of the Southeastern Conference has begun to earn his salary. The gentleman has just issued a report stating that rumors of professionalism are exaggerated.' Voice of the people-"Let's hope the new general the War Department is sending up to West Point takes a couple of Panzer divisions with him. Even Lafayette let the boys down." Robert M. Barnett.

VIRGINIA HUNTING LICENSES (non resident only) FRIES, BEALL & SHARP

734 10th St. N.W.

1000 BLADENSBURG RD. N.E.

701 SOUTH PATRICK ST.

621 PENN. AVE. N.W. | 3446 14th STREET N.W.

Opposite Sears and Roebuck | Corner Franklin, Alex., Va.